REGIONAL COURSE IN INTERNATIONAL LAW FOR ASIA-PACIFIC

Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law

17 November to 10 December 2025

GENERAL INFORMATION

The United Nations Regional Courses in International Law are conducted under the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law. The United Nations Programme of Assistance was established by General Assembly resolution 2099 (XX) of 20 December 1965 to contribute towards a better knowledge of international law as a means of strengthening international peace and security and promoting friendly relations and cooperation among States.

The Regional Courses are organized by the Codification Division of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs. The Regional Course for Asia-Pacific is organized in cooperation with the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand and the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UNESCAP).

OBJECTIVES

The Regional Courses provide high-quality training by prominent international law scholars and practitioners from different regions and legal systems on a broad range of core topics of international law, as well as specific topics of particular interest to the countries in a given region. In addition, the interactive nature of the sessions allows the participants to share experiences and exchange ideas, which promotes greater understanding and cooperation on legal matters in the region.

The Regional Courses are intended to enable qualified professionals, in particular government officials and teachers of international law from developing countries and countries with emerging economies, to deepen their knowledge of international law, and of the legal work of the United Nations.

COURSE CONTENT

The Regional Courses consist of seminars delivered by eminent scholars and practitioners in international law from different regions and legal systems. The curriculum will include seminars on the following core topics as well as other topics of particular interest to the region: Introduction to international law, the law of treaties, State responsibility, diplomatic and consular law, international peace and security, peaceful settlement of international disputes, international human rights law, the law of the sea, international humanitarian law, international criminal law, international environmental law, international trade law, international investment law, and international law in the Asia-Pacific region.
